CHAMPAGNE

For all occasions

CHAMPAGNE GARDET

A champagne that we think combines the finesse expected of a Grand Cru Champagne House with affordability.

Champagne Gardet is a long established family owned business, founded in Epernay in 1895. Based in Chigny-les-Roses, classified as a Premier Cru village, Gardet has access to the most prized terroir in Champagne. We were lucky enough to have a tour of the cellars where we observed the careful blend of traditional wine making with the technical know how of the 21st century.

Stephanie Sucheyre is the winemaker at Ch. Gardet, who was awarded 'Best New Entrant' in the 2024 Master Winemaker. The traditional blend of three grapes: Pinot Noir, Pinot Meunier and Chardonnay, with a minimum 36 months bottle age prior to release, creates a richness of fruit and balancing acidity. They are very proud of the fact that Champagne Gardet is the chosen 'house' wine of the House of Lords!

Golden straw colour, fine, delicate bubbles, the wine delivers a delicious bouquet of pear & apple. Candied fruits linger enticingly on the palate. Very more-ish!

Champagne Gardet - Brut Reserve - Premier Cru

1/3 Pinot Noir, 1/3 Pinot Meunier, 1/3 Chardonnay

25% oak-aged reserve wine.

Case of 6 bottles: £240.00

Individual bottle: £40.00

Please note we can only deliver a single bottle by special arrangement.

DOUBLE MAGNUMS

For all occasions

Having a party, celebration or looking for a present?

Double Magnums are back by popular demand!

Always a hugely appreciated gift and always guaranteed to create a stir at any party.
Apart from their eye catching appearance, the larger bottle means the wine ages more gracefully as the air to wine ratio in the bottle is smaller than for the 75cl. bottle. Slower oxidation creates greater potential for ageing over a longer period and is a more refined way of softening the tannins. So, it can be laid down for longer and the wine will taste even better than the same wine from a normal sized bottle.

We have an excellent and affordable selection:

All of the below are sold as individual bottles in their own original wooden box.

2015 Chateau Mauvesin Barton

Since the Barton-Sartorius family took over this estate, this wine has always been a staple of our lists. Reliable classic Bordeaux. 48% Merlot,35% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Cabernet France, 3% Petit Verdot.

Jenkins & Beckers

WINE MERCHANTS

CHILDERLEY CAMBRIDGE

Robert Cumming, Carolyn Cumming, Chloe Jenkins,
Phoebe Barratt, Chloe Marsden & Clara Davies (Administration).

Jenkins and Beckers was founded by John Jenkins, a connoisseur of wines and a member of the Bordeaux Club in the early 1970s. At that time his fellow Partner was Richard Beckers, a successful German business man.

In due course when Richard Beckers retired, other family members became Partners in Jenkins and Beckers. John Jenkins died in 2007, aged 88, but the business continues with members of the family who share his original vision and his passion for food and wine.

From the outset the philosophy of the company was the buy only the best wines en primeur and to hold them for the long term - often 10 or 20 years or more.

All the Partners, whilst paying careful attention to the business, have other careers, and the family are motivated more by an interest in wine than by profit. They continue to maintain their contacts with the French negociants and certain key members of the UK Trade so as to be able to buy wisely and maintain and good service.

We also hold a limited selection of inexpensive classic French wines, expressive of their terroir, which offer outstanding quality and value, ready to drink now and over the next year or two. This is our Partners' Selection offered here. We drink them ourselves, and each wine has been chosen to complement a range of dishes.

Because we pay neither salaries nor dividends - any surplus is reinvested in the business - we are able to offer highly competitive prices.

Jenkins and Beckers Fine Wine Limited, 4A Mill Yard, Childerley, Dry Drayton, Cambridge, CB23 8BA.
